Annual Report

Toy Libraries Australia (TLA) is the peak body for over 250 not-for-profit toy libraries across Australia. TLA is a non-profit incorporated association. We promote the importance and the value of play and aim to raise the profile of toy libraries in the community.

what is a toy library?

A toy library enables parents and caregivers to borrow a large variety of educational toys, games, and puzzles in a process similar to that of a book library. These toys suit children from birth to primary school and beyond.

Our members operate in a variety of formats and in settings that reflect the needs and capacities of their local communities. Toy libraries are generally situated within premises shared with other community services, with some operating full time and others a few hours a week.

Toy libraries range from small (catering to as few as 20 families in rural towns) - to large (supporting over 500 families). Some toy libraries have part-time paid staff, but all rely on the assistance of a team of volunteers to operate; over 14,000 volunteers support toy libraries each year in Australia.

Toy libraries are generally operationally self-funding through membership fees, fundraising and corporate sponsorships; although limited grants from philanthropic sources and local government funding enable toy libraries to extend their toy collections. Toy libraries do not currently receive any ongoing funding from either state or federal governments.

Our mission:

To support a growing community of Australian not-for-profit toy libraries, encouraging families to play and learn together in a sustainable way.

benefits of toy libraries

TLA service & activities

TLA supports existing toy libraries, encourages the establishment of new toy libraries and encourages families to play through its service.

- World Play Day (28 May) – celebrates the child's right to play, as enshrined in Article 31 of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child. For more information on World Play Day visit www.toylibraries.org.au/wpd
- Annual national and state conferences in Melbourne, Adelaide and Perth
- Toy Community – TLA runs Toy Community, a social enterprise that helps toy libraries access toys at wholesale/discount prices
- Networking toy library staff and volunteers both online and face-to-face
- Negotiation of affordable insurance for toy libraries
- Information and support on running toy libraries

Toy Libraries

AUSTRALIA

Support member toy libraries to grow

1. Support toy libraries to use the quality standards
2. Continue to grow attendance at WA, SA and VIC training
3. Increase networking opportunities
4. Better support our staff to support our members
5. Grow the usage of Toy Community

Aim for at least one toy library in every council area in Australia

6. Develop a short guide to establishing a new toy library
7. Develop a mentoring program for new toy libraries' committees
8. Run networking/training in NSW and QLD
9. Secure the future of Playgroup Queensland toy libraries

Ensure every family with pre-school children knows about toy libraries

10. Establish an Instagram presence
11. Establish relationships with online influencers

Encourage the environmentally sustainable use of toys

12. Articulate a position statement on environmental sustainability
13. Articulate the environmental benefits of toy libraries
14. Position toy libraries to win environmentally focused grants.

Secure funding for projects to support the above goals

14. Secure corporate partners
15. Continue to apply for grants
16. Lobby for Deductible Gift Recipient status
